

उ) महाविद्यालयात विद्यार्थ्यांसाठी असलेल्या सुविधा / शिष्यवृत्ती योजनाची माहिती.

Following facilities are available for students in the college:

1. Stipend to the Meritorious students: The meritorious students are entitled to the benefit of stipend under the UGC scheme, the students belong to S.C. S.T. O.B.C. and minority categories can avail themselves of the stipend.
2. Hostel facility: The student being poor and budding can enjoy the facilities of accommodation and meal at the Ashram School hostel at free of cost. The hostel facility is available to 20 boys on separately on campus.
3. Health services : The college organises health diagnosis camps. Besides there is a facility of 'first aid' in the event of mishap or injury. To develop the consciousness about health among the students, the college arrange lectures and demonstrations .Blood donation camp and blood check-up are the special events under the health service activity.
4. Sports department: Apart from body build, skill , stamina and health, the sport develop one's personality. Team work preserves team spirit of the game. It decreases the complexes of superiority and inferiority , imposition, etc. The sports generate self-confidence and the master sportspersons are seen to have been successful in life. Sports also give rise to the sound mind in sound body. To serve the purpose, the college has had the sports facilities like Cricket, Football, Badminton, Carom, Ring, Kho-Kho, Chess, Kabbadi, etc, there are some students that have represented the college at University or state level sports events.
5. The library: The college library is known for collection of books on various subjects. It has about 1200 books. The students augment the ability of thinking and self-development by dint of reading. A continuous reading can enable the students to comprehend different subjects quite fast. Reading comprehensive definitely yields great intellectual benefits. Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar used to study for eighteen hours. It was on the basis of his reading tens of thousands of books that he produced the constitution of India. His reading concentration was bottomless. To take on the journey of reading, conscious efforts, reflection, revisions are absolutely require. The students should optimize the use of the library.

Rules and Regulations:

- i. The students should observe silence in the library.
 - ii. The books are issued only to the identity and library card holders.
 - iii. Only two books are issued per candidate a week.
 - iv. If the books are issued are not returned within stipulated time, the students should pay the due.
 - v. While borrowing books the students should ensure that books are in good condition.
 - vi. If the books found damaged, torn or missing, the borrower should compensate for them.
 - vii. The students breaching the rules and regulations are liable to punishment.
6. The Night Study: with a view to scarcity of electric power , the facility of night study is made available to the students between October and November and January and close of the examinations. The timing of the night study has been from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. The students are advised to benefit from this.
 7. Suggestion Box:- Should you have any Serious creative or constructive suggestions to make as regard administration, teaching , discipline or any other important activity, please feel free to use the above box. Your suggestion counts a lot and would be treated seriously by a special committee that meets every week to sort out the issues.

8. Assessment Method: To determine the effectiveness of study of students, the different methods of assessment are adopted. For this reason the students are to undergo tests, tutorial work and seminars. The students are motivated to ask questions in the classroom which establishes a dialogue between the teacher and them.

The teachers use the methods of group discussion , debate, field study, etc. In the classroom. This generates interest ,intellect, eligibility among the students on different grounds. Taking into account this difference, the teachers offer individual guidance to the students.

9. Late Vasant Rao Kale Earn and Learn Scheme: to carry out the concept of ' education through self-reliance' of Bhaurao Patil, the sage in education, Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University advised every college, affiliated to it. To launch the 'Earn and Learn Scheme' Accordingly, the scheme has been in force on campus of this college since 2015-16. The students that are poor needy, budding and baseless should apply to the committee looking after the scheme. The students that are part of the scheme receive remuneration for Rs.2000/- every year towards the 2-hour work every working day. Late Vasant Rao Kale Earn and Learn Scheme has been in practice in the college since the academic year 2016-17.
10. Complaint Box: the students are advised to use this box to inform the administration of their genuine complains pertaining to academic matters, administration or any other issue. The Grievance Redress Committee meets week to sort out solution to the genuine and plausible problems of the students.

11. For the Scholarship Holders:

The students of the college can avail themselves of the different scholarships. The students eligible for national merit scholarship , physically challenged scholarship and GOI scholarship should.

1. Submit the scholarship forms within stipulated date.
2. Attach all the required documents with the form.
3. Fulfil the queries , if any, immediately.
4. Attach with the form the following documents.
 - i. Statements of Marks
 - ii. Migration certificate
 - iii. Income certificate
 - iv. Caste certificate.
 - v. District change certificate, if necessary.
 - vi. A photocopy of Adhar Card.
 - vii. Scholarship sanction number.
 - viii. Housing rental application.

12. For the students of Economically Backward class:

The students wishing to avail themselves of the facility under E.B.C. should.

1. Submit Income certificate released in the name of father/mother guardian.
2. Attend the college regularly.
3. Submit salary certificate of the guardian, if applicable.

Educational Facilities to the servicemen having retired as major or soldier from the Indian army, navy or air force are relaxed from paying any kind of educational fee. These heirs should submit their application, along with all necessary documents, in the prescribed format.

FOLLOWING GOVERNMENT SCHEMES AND SCHOLARSHIP AVAILABLE FOR STUDENTS:

- I. E.B.C.Scholarship.
 - II. National Merit Scholarship
 - III. Physically Challenged Scholarship
 - IV. Primary teachers ward scholarship.
 - V. Rajshri Shau scholarship.
 - VI. GOI Scholarship.
 - VII. Minority Students scholarship.
13. NSS Unit: The various activities carried out under National Service Scheme(NSS) of the college from the perspective of developing personality of the students each. The students desirous to partake in NSS are advised to fill in the application and submit it to the programme officer concerned. The certificate of NSS is beneficial to the students for their career. Generally , 100(Hundred) students are selected for the activity.
 14. Cultural Department: the cultural department of the college has been after providing scope to the students to develop their innate artistic abilities. The department is creditable for having distinguished itself within the jurisdiction of Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University, Aurangabad. The cultural department is known for its ability to produce the artist and has always helped the college succeed in the university level competitions. The college was acknowledged twice as the best in the inter-collegiate Youth Festival of the university .
 15. Competitive Examination Guidance Bureau: From the point of view of getting the students prepared for the competitive examinations held by the M.P.S.C., U.P.S.C. and other boards, the college runs the aforesaid bureau. The bureau arranges lectures of the experts on the competitive examinations and the college library has the books, journals and reference books for the purpose.
 16. Motivation and Guidance to the Meritorious students: keeping in view growth in the number of meritorious students, the college motivates the meritorious students. The teachers guide them personally so that they fare forward fast. To create an environment of competition among the students to acquire better grades, the founder Director of Parth Arts and Science College, Prof Dilip Jadhav and the college teachers have arranged awards in diverse subjects. There are also other facilities made available to such distinguished students.
 17. Student's Parliament Council: The Students' Parliament is constituted to raise democratic leadership from among the students and to find solutions to the problems of students under the very leadership. Every year a student that tops in his/her class is made into the representative of that class. The other representatives are selected by the Principal on the basis of their merit, for instance, in NSS, sports, etc. The university representative is elected from among all these representatives. The representative thus elected is required to attend the college regularly failing which she/he may be replaced with another representative.